As a manufacturer of high-quality, reliable electrical and electronic appliances and industrial equipment, the Klöckner Moeller name has been well known since a very long time in Hungary. The German company maintained a commercial presence in Hungary from the mid-80s, then under the name Klöckner Moeller Hungaria Kft. it established a wholly owned Hungarian subsidiary in 1995. Ever since the company's life has been characterized by continuous development. Today, it has 34 full-time employees and reached a 2.4 billion EUR annual turnover in 1996.

At the beginning of April 2008, the American Eaton Corporation acquired completely the Moeller Group and as a professional investor became its sole owner. Since May 2010, the company name is officially Eaton Industries Kft.
